Thank You

I want to thank all the members that attended our 36th Annual Membership Meeting. This year's annual meeting was indeed our best meeting ever. Our meeting was held at the Petroleum Club of Lafayette. Members enjoyed good food, entertainment by Magic Moods, and fabulous door prizes. I would like to congratulate Mr. Walter Theriot, our grand prize winner of a I-Pad 62 mg (WIFI—3G).

I also want to thank Kimberly Patin and Deborah Borman for their years of dedication and service to PHIFCU as a Board of Director. Their dedication and knowledge contributed to the growth and success of the credit union.

We are very excited to announce our newest board members, Mr. Billy Morvant and Mr. Kyle Boss. We look forward to working with both of them.

Emergency Financial Plan

With hurricane season underway, now is the perfect time to make sure you have a plan in case of an emergency. You probably have the top things in mind like food, water, flashlights, and evacuation routes. But have you prepared your finances:

- Do you have a list of debt obligations, due dates and whom to contact?
- Do you know where your important papers and keys are located?
- How will you get money if you are evacuating?
- Do you know your credit cards number (without looking at the card)?

These are just a few of the questions to ask yourself. Always be prepared.

PHI Federal Credit Union Privacy Policy

PHI Federal Credit Union recognizes the importance of our responsibility in protecting our members' private information. We want the personal and financial information that you have entrusted to us; therefore, we have developed the following privacy policy and approach that respects and addresses your needs. We believe that all personal and financial information specific to you that you provide the Credit Union through any channel constitutes personal information.

Collection of Personal Information

When you apply for a Credit Union account services, we collect personal information in order to process your application. This information may be retained by us so that we can provide the products and services you request. Some of this information is also handled by our operating partners as required to conduct credit union business. Our operating partners have agreed to abide by our policy.

When you open or use an account or service from the Credit Union, we retain personal information you provide in the context of using that product or service, including transaction information.

When you send us e-mail, we will retain the content of the e-mail, your e-mail address, and our response in order to assure we have adequately addressed your inquiry and to handle any follow up questions you may have. We may also use it to measure how effectively we address your concerns.

Use and Sharing of Personal Information

The Credit Union will use personal information as appropriate in the normal course of our business to provide the products and services you request. We will also use this information to provide positive identification of you when you contact us.

We will not disclose information to third parties (excluding credit union affiliates) concerning your account with us, except: (a) when such disclosure is necessary to complete the transaction: (b) to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party (such as a credit union bureau) as is permitted by law: (c) to comply with any court order or applicable laws or regulations: or (d) when you give us written permission.

The Credit Union does not and will not sell or provide personal information to third parties for independent use. We may, however, share personal information with our credit union affiliates, as allowed by federal law, if that information is required to provide a product or service you have requested.

Accuracy of Personal Information

The Credit Union intends to exercise reasonable procedures in order to assure the accuracy of our records and your personal information. Inaccurate information, when brought to our attention, will be corrected as promptly as possible. If you have any questions regarding the accuracy of your personal information, please call a Credit Union representative, or contact us via e-mail link: info@phifcu.com. We will investigate your issue and update your records as needed.

We request that you keep that your information as current as possible so that you may get the maximum benefit from the Credit Union.
